SENATE.

TUESDAY, March 22, 1927.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, we rise to express our faith in Thee for all Thou hast done for us. We thank Thee for Thy Word, which is the foundation of all law and the cornerstone of this great republic of ours. We have expressed our faith in Thee in the currency of this great nation, and all the civilized world knows this. So we pray Thee this morning to guide us by Thy Spirit, somehow or other, that we may follow in the line of Thy great law.

Bless these Senators in their deliberations and in their work. Grant unto them Thy wisdom, that they may do the very thing Thou wouldst have them do. Hear us, we ask; and we will give Thee the praise, now and forever. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding sesion, when, on motion of Mrs. VARE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1, entitled:

An Act relating to elections and primary elections providing for and regulating the aproval of voting machines by a State Board of Voting Machine Examiners their purchase care custody and safekeeping by counties and their preparation for and use at such elections regulating election returns and providing penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I wish to submit several newspaper clippings, to be inserted in the Legislative Journal:

From the Scranton Republican:

Voting Machines the Real Answer

There is just one election reform bill before the State Legislature that counts—Senator Albert Davis' Bill for the mandatory institution of voting machines throughout Pennsylvania.

The four bills under consideration are all right, may be somewhat effective in helping to determine where and when fraud from being practiced—the voting machine prevents fraud from being perpetrated.

We would not oppose any measures purposing to make elections cleaner, even if constant amending of the election laws tends to complication and cluttering up the statute books, even if they do not strike at the roots of the evils, even if they appear so intent on partially satisfying public opinion and allaying criticism as to be nearly a subterfuge.

This public opinion is mighty sick of the way elections are conducted, of the aftermath of scandal following as many elections. If people really want to know why the proportion of votes cast hovers around 50 per cent of the electorate, that is the answer.

By one simple, direct, logical and courageous act, the complications, the multiplicity of laws to catch election crooks, the suspicion that elections are de facto crooked, the Legislature can cut straight through the haze. By doing the right thing. By passing the mandatory voting machine bill.

VOTING MACHINE BILL FAVORED IN WEST SIDE.

MEMBERS OF WASHINGTON CAMP, P. O. S. of A., ENDORSE MEASURE OF SENATOR ALBERT DAVIS—WILL ATTEND MASS MEETING OF LODGE

Members of Washington Camp, 178, Patriotic Order Sons of America, last night went on record as being in favor of the use of voting machines in this State as provided for in a measure introduced at this session of the State Legislature by Senator Davis, of Lackawanna. The decision came after several members of the camp had spoken favorably on the project, pointing that they believe voting machines will be instrumental in safeguarding the franchise of voting.

President Harold J. Harris presided at the session. It was announced that Thomas W. Price, district president and a member of the camp, has been named a lieutenant in the country-wide membership drive now under way. He will take an active part in conducting the campaign.

The members were urged to attend a mass meeting of all camps in the county to be held Monday night at Malta Hall, Adams avenue, as guests of Camp 242. The session will be open to the public, and State Organizer R. L. Sandt will be the presiding officer. The principal speakers will be Judge Albert W. Johnson, state president of the order, and C. B. Helms, state secretary.

Tonight a large delegation from the camp will attend a membership campaign committee meeting to be held at Bald Mount Camp. Members desiring to attend are are urged to be at the hall at 7:15 o'clock, as a truck has been secured to convey them to the meeting place.

Benjamin H. Lloyd was installed as trustee to fill out the unexpired term of John Griffiths. Nominations were made for the office of assistant financial secretary to replace David R. Davis, resigned. The nominees are: Thomas Gealy, Roy Smith and Howard Thomas. The election will take place next week.

From the Scranton Dispatch:

WE ARE FOR VOTING MACHINES

Senator Albert Davis deserves the fullest support in his very praiseworthy struggle to get voting machines to take the place of corrupt election board officials.

Lackawanna county has spent enough money in the last twenty years for election contests, election frauds and for the grafting of corrupt officials elected by corrupt counts and counted-in by corrupt boards to buy a full quota of voting machines SIX OR EIGHT TIMES OVER.

In our city and county the question on election day is not who does the voting, but who counts the votes. This is a most disgraceful condition and entirely unworthy of a great city, county and state like ours.

The matter of voting and the counting of votes should be purely MATHEMATICAL and not PERSONAL such as it is now with many election boards. Our last city election for mayor supplied evidence enough of the imperative need for voting machines.

Senator Davis is sponsoring the only real election reform bill. The rest are merely meant to throw dust in the eyes of the taxpayers. The political machines of every county, including our own, DO NOT WANT VOTING MACHINES. Remember this! We have proof of this by the attitude of the FEDERATED WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUBS OF LACKAWANNA COUNTY. All they want, according to the committee, is to have Senator Davis support the "four administration election bills." The women who signed the telegram to Senator Davis are mostly office-holders or former office-holders and they belong to the political machine now in power.

The four administration election bills are just like other election bills by former administrations—worse than worthless and just that much more expense for disgusted taxpayers. Every reform bill seems to make matters worse and the voters become less and less interested in voting with every abortive insincere and fatuous effort to "PURIFY" our elections. The great majority of our people are beginning to feel that it is useless to go to the polls on election day. They are losing faith in our form of government. This is an exceedingly dangerous attitude for our people to take. In proportion as our people lose faith in our present form of government will they be susceptible to ultra-radical ideas, red, black and of every other color. Who is to blame for this growing attitude on the part of the great majority of the people? Clearly the fault lies with the organized political machines who happen to be in power. Like the old Czar of Russia the machine gangsters create a very fertile soil for the reddest of red ideas.

Senator Davis is reported to have bitterly criticised the organized Republican women of Lackawanna county for their attitude against the legaliping of voting machines. Senator Davis is absolutely right and The Dispatch backs him up to the limit of its ability. Possibly the Federated Women's Republican clubs as represented by Mrs. Helen Cruttenden, Miss Hazel Davis, Mrs. Mary J. Williams, Mrs. Edwin Gearhart, Mrs. Theodore Scholla, Mrs. Charles Dorrance and Mrs. Ann Duval FORGOT the only real election reform bill which calls for the installation of voting machines. If this be so then they should immediately proceed to square themselves with the decent voters who want real election reform. That their telegram got them "in bad" with the honest electorate is clearly evident from the speech of the people.

Election boards count the votes the way politicians want them counted. Voting machines count the votes the way any honest person would have them counted—with quick mathematical certainty. Has this outstanding feature anything to do with the attitude of political machine clubs which Senator Davis characterizes as being so "mighty unfair." Does the political machine want correct counting?

From the Scranton Times:

PATRIOTIC ORDER CAMPS' SESSION AT BALD MOUNT.

SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN ROSTER NOTED SINCE RECENT START OF MEMBERSHIP DRIVE.

State Organizer R. L. Sandt presided at a meeting of all camps of the Patriotic Order Sons of America in Lackawanna county last night at Camp 528, Bald Mount, at which the chief matter of business discussed was the membership campaign. The session followed an oyster supper served by the entertaining camp.

Substantial increases have been noted in the membership of the various camps, their reports submitted last night showed, as the result of the campaign launched recently. The activities of both the eastern and western district were reviewed by Captain Louis Puhl, of the eastern district, and Captain Frank Schroeder, of the western district, both of whom pointed out that enthusiasm is the keynote of activity in each camp.

That the order at all times stands for clean politics, was the basis of the address made By Hon. David Davis, of Taylor camp, who pointed to the action of Washburn camp, 178, West Scranton, taken Thursday night, in which that organization endorsed the election reform measure of Senator Albert Davis. Thomas W. Price, district president of the order, also spoke.

For the second time, since the opening of the campaign, Brother Parry, of Camp 790, Olyphant, was awarded a prize for having proposed more candidates for the order than any other member in the county.

Mr. Sandt announced that the next booster meeting will be held at Camp 790, Olyphant, Tuesday night. A public meeting will also be held at Malta hall, Adams avenue, this city, Monday night when Judge Albert W. Johnson, state president, and C. B. Helms, state secretary, will be the speakers.

On March 16 members of the P. O. S. of A. and P. O. of A. will attend services at the Crabill tabernacle in a body, it was announced at the meeting.

Mr LESLIE. Mr. President, I wish to file my reasons for voting aye on Senate Bill No. 1. I have voted in the affirmative on this bill for the reason that it complies with the constitutional provision of this State that the election laws shall be general,—what is to be used in one district is to be used in every election district throughout the State. Therefore I vote "aye".

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 29, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections five hundred and one and five hundred and two of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 359) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as amended changing open seasons and bag limits and restricting the authority of game protectors in the enforcement of laws be recommitted to the Committee on Game and Fisheries.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 307, (House Bill No. 243), entitled:

An Act providing for the appointment of assessors of personal property in counties having a population of one million two hundred and fifty thousand or over defining their duties and fixing their salaries

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, page 1, lines 2 and 3 by striking out the words "having a population of one million two hundred and fifty thousand or over"; also line 3 by inserting after the word "over" the following words: "of the first class"; also section 1, page 1, line 4 by striking out the words "having a"; also line 5 by striking out the entire line; also line 6 by striking out the words "or over"; also line 6 by inserting after the word "over" the following words: "of the first class".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

REQUEST FOR BILL TO GO OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 386, on third reading, entitled:

An Act relating to the finances of the Commonwealth; abolishing certain special funds in the State Treasury; providing for payment of the moneys therein and all future fees, fines and penalties heretofore payable into such special funds into the general fund; and making the same available for all lawful expenditures.

to go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the file folio ought to be corrected to 1059, otherwise the Firemen's Pension Fund will not be exempted; but in this corrected bill, which I hold in my hand, the Firemen's Pension Fund is corrected and respected.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would like to know the reason for asking that the bill go over. The bill has now been on the calendar several times, and unless there is some good reason it seems to me it ought to be voted on.

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I have an amendment which I expected to have at this time, but it is not here; and I would like to have an opportunity to get that amendment in.

The PRESIDENT. Do I hear any objection to the bill going over?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I understand that the Senator from Greene, Mr. Parkinson, wishes to amend the bill so as to eliminate the fireman's exemption clause. That is the amendment, and there is no use in waiting for any more amendments. We have used up all the letters of the alphabet now.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, object to the bill going over?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I do object,—very much so.

The PRESIDENT. The chair hears objection.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 386, entitled:

An Act relating to the finances of the Commonwealth abolishing certain special funds in the State Treasury providing for the payment of the moneys therein and all future fines and penalties heretofore payable into such special funds into the general fund and making the same available for all lawful expenditures

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, in respect to the brief statement by the sponsor of the bill that the Firemen's Pension clause is cut out of the bill, I would like the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, to elicidate in a few words, in his own way,—before any amendor comes along with his vocabulary—so as to make this bill clear to the members of the committee.

Mr. PRESIDENT. I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, to explain to the Senate whether cutting out this particular provision protects the Fremen's Pension Fund.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it does.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, on what page, and what line?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it is the underscoring on that second page.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, as it was originally introduced it would have upset the proposition of the proper protection of Firemen's Pension in cities of the first and second classes, at least; and naturally we were interested in having that portion of the Act that would take in insurance companies,—not take it away from the firemen but eliminate it from this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, that is it exactly.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I am still not satisfied that the Firemen's Relief Fund is exempted. It is not exempted on the bill in my file.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it is a printer's mistake, that is all.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, there seems to be some doubt about this bill with respect to the Firemen's Fund. May I inform my fellow members that we had a little conference here when this bill came up before, as a result of which the bill was referred to the Committee on Appropriations; and then in consultation with Mr. Towsend, the Budget Officer, it was agreed that Mr. Schnader, the Special Deputy Attorney General, be called into the conference and make sure that as far as this bill is concerned the Firemen's Pension Fund would be included in the bill, and that it would not be regarded as a saving fund to be eliminated but that it would remain as it is. And the amendment was prepared by Mr. Schnader and passed over to the chairman of the committee, Mr. Baldwin, who reported it out last evening; and it was very satisfactory, as far as we are concerned in the county districts, representing volunteer firemen, that this bill should pass in its present form.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, if the exemptions apply to the Fish and Game Funds as well.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, they do.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 750, (House Bill No. 667), entitled:

An Act to amend section two as amended and section three of the act approved the thirteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifteen (P. L. 150) entitled "An act concerning divorces" requiring additional facts to be set forth in libels regulating the service of subpoenas and providing for the effect of the findings of fact by the master and the court below on appeal

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I feel that I ought to inform the members of the Senate that although this bill speaks about subpoena service, and that notice shall be given in divorce proceedings at the last known address of the respondent, they will observe that there is a clause also inserted which is very important to the citizens of Pennsylvania, and especially to those unfortunate persons who may get into divorce courts.

Mr. Alexander, who is sponsor for this bill, is a member of the House of Representatives, representing the same district that I do; and I am not asking the members of the Senate to vote for or against the bill, but Mr. Alexander and I had some litigation in the County of Delaware, and that litigation went to the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth The Supreme Court gave its final opinion, deciding the question whether the findings of fact by a master appointed by the Court in a divorce proceeding should be conclusive and have the same effect as a verdict of a jury.

For a long while, in a series of cases handed down by the Superior Court, it has been held that a master appointed in a divorce proceeding simply reports backs to the Court in an advisory capacity, and that his findings of fact and conclusions of law are not binding upon the Court; but owing to the condition of the court, with much business there to be transacted, another Act of Assembly was prepared under which masters would be permitted to be appointed so as to relieve the congestion of the court, and the question as to whether the findings of fact and conclusions of law should be in an advisory capacity or conclusive.

In the Courts of Chancery as administered in the common law form in our Courts of Common Pleas, the findings of a master are conclusive, and the findings of an auditor are conclusive. The findings of the court conducting a case without a trial by jury would be conclusive. But it has always been held by the Courts that as far as a master in a divorce proceeding is concerned his findings are simply advisory.

And is it safe for us at this time,—with so much disturbance in our social relations, to change the law whereby the findings of a master, if confirmed by the Court of Appeal, would be conclusive? Bear in mind, there are some people who desire to file appeals in the Appellate Court, to have the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Court below reviewed; and do you not see, if the Appellate Court does happen to have these findings of fact and conclusions of law of the master reviewed. The door is shut in your face,—because the Court below has confirmed the findings of fact of the master, and unless there is some error on the face of the proceedings, that master's report must be confirmed, because the Court below says he finds them the same as the master; and there is therefore nothing to be reviewed, although there may be a mistake in the court below.

I am simply presenting this explanation of this bill because Mr. Alexander was on one side and I was on the other side of a case that you lawyers will recall, decided very recently, confirming Middleton vs. Middleton; and to that has now been added Ingraele vs. Ingraele, decided this year, confirming the decision in the Middleton case, that the findings of fact in a case tried by a master are not conclusive, and that it is required of the judges of the court below to review the testimony the same as if the master had never made any report. The Court may accept the master's report or he may reject the master's report. And when it comes to the Appellate Court, in the matter of appeal, it is there de novo and the judges of the court must read the testimony as though it had never been heard before, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law and of the master are conclusive.

The question is, so far as this bill is concerned, and as I said in the beginning, I will say now again, I am not trying to influence you one way or another; but I want you to understand what this bill is. It is changing the law, changing it radically. We have followed Middleton vs. Middleton for many years; in the Supreme Court, in the Superior Court in all of those cases decided them de novo. We mean by that they take them afresh, and read the testimony and decide according to their consciences and justice and the law of the land.

And that is this case. I feel it my duty to explain to the Senators just what the bill is. If you believe the master's findings of fact and conclusions of law should be conclusive, then vote for the bill. If you believe that the Supreme Court and the Superior Court and the lower courts should have the power of review over the findings of fact and conclusions of law, then vote against the bill. I purpose voting against it.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I was not concerned on either side of this Delaware County case, but I feel it practically my duty here to state my views on this proposition,—and I am not moved by any feeling on cases that have been decided there. But if you pass this bill there would be very little use of taking appeals from the decisions of the divorce courts, because they are decided—ninety-nine out of a hundred—upon the face of the testimony; and if you say that the findings of the master and of the court in a divorce case are conclusive, as are the findings of a Master in Chancery, that takes away what the Superior and Supreme Courts have been doing for years. In other words, they pass upon the case as though it were originally brought before the entire court.

I think it would be a step in the wrong direction to pass this bill as it is written at this time. I would therefore advise that it should not be defeated.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 650, (House Bill No. 704), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 995) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and fixing their salaries"

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Bill?

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 3, line 2, by striking out the word "seven" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "three"; also line 5 by striking out the word "six" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "five"; also line 5, by striking out the words "a second" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "and three"; also line 6 by striking out the word "attorney" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "attorneys"; also by striking out the word "an"; also by striking out the word "salary" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "salaries"; also line 7 by inserting after the word "dollars" the following word "each"; also by striking out the words "a third assistant district attorney at an annual"; also lines 8, 9, 10 and 11 by striking out the entire lines inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof "for all counties having a population of three hundred and fifty thousand and more but less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, the district attorney shall have authority to appoint a first assistant district attorney at an annual salary of four thousand dollars and three assistant district attorneys at annual salaries of three thousand five hundred dollars each."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection. The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HUFFMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 987, entitled:

An Act to amend sections 506 and 508 of the act approved the 18th day of May, 1911 (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith."

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to read a bill in place at this time.

An Act providing for the opening of ballot boxes after general municipal special or primary elections upon petition to the Court of Common Pleas under certain circumstances and imposing certain duties in connection therewith upon the Court the Prothonotary and the county treasurer

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That upon petition of three qualified electors of any city borough or township duly sworn to by them that upon information which they consider reliable they believe that an act of fraud or error although not manifest on the general return of votes made therefrom was committed in the computation of the votes cast at any general municipal special or primary election in any election district contained within or co-extensive with such city borough or township or in the marking of the ballots cast in such election district or otherwise in connection with such ballots the Court of Common Pleas of the county wherein the city borough or township is situated or with which it is co-extensive shall open the ballot box of such election district and shall cause the entire vote thereof to be correctly counted by persons designated by the court It shall not be necessary for the petitioners to be residents of the election district nor shall the petitioners be required to specify in their petition the particular act of fraud or error they believe to have been committed nor to offer evidence to substantiate the allegations of their petition

Section 2 Every petition for the opening of a ballot box under the provisions of this act shall be filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county accompanied by cash in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) or by a bond signed by the petitioners as principals and by a corporate surety to be approved by the Court in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200.00) conditioned upon the payment to the county treasurer of the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) in the event that upon the opening of the ballot box it shall not appear that an act of fraud or error was committed in the computation of the vote cast on the ballots contained therein or in the marking of the ballots contained therein or otherwise in connection with such ballots

Section 3 If upon opening any ballot box under the provisions of this act it shall appear that any act of fraud or error was committed in the computation of the vote cast on the ballots contained therein or in the marking of the ballots contained therein or otherwise in connection with such ballots it shall be the duty of the court to certify to the prothonotary such fact and thereupon the prothonotary shall if the petitioners shall have deposited with him cash in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) return to them the said sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) and if the petitioners shall have filed with the prothonotary a bond in lieu of cash the prothonotary shall forthwith mark said bond "cancelled"

Section 4 If upon opening any ballot box under the provisions of this act it shall not appear that an act of fraud or error was committed in the computation of the vote cast on the ballots contained therein or in the marking of the ballots contained therein or otherwise in connection with such ballots the persons upon whose petition such ballot box shall have been opened shall forfeit to the county the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) If said petitioners shall have deposited the said sum in cash with the prothonotary at the time of filing their petition the prothonotary shall promptly upon the certification of the court that fraud or error was not discovered pay said sum deposited with him to the county treasurer and if the petitioners shall have filed with their petition a bond in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) it shall be the duty of the county treasurer forthwith to collect from the surety on said bond the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) and the cost of suit and for this purpose he is hereby authorized to institute any necessary legal proceedings

Section 5 Ballot boxes may be opened under the provisions of this act at any time within four months after the date of the general municipal special or primary election at which the ballots therein shall have been cast If any ballot box shall have been opened under the provisions of this act before the completion of the computation and canvassing of all of the returns for the county and the court shall discover therein any fraud or material error it shall correct compute and certify to the return judges or the return board for the said county the votes of the election district regardless of any fraudulent or erroneous entries made by the election officers thereof and it shall be the duty of the return judges or return board to enter in the returns the figures so certified and to correct accordingly any entries previously made in the papers being prepared by the said return judges or return board No order or decision of said court hereunder shall be deemed a final adjudication regarding the results of any election or primary so as to preclude any contest thereof and no such order or decision shall affect the official return of said election direct unless the ballot boxes shall have been opened before the completion of the computation and canvassing of all of the returns for the county as herein provided or unless a contest shall have been instituted in the manner now or hereafter provided by law

Section 6 If upon the opening of any ballot box under the provisions of this act it shall be found that an act of fraud or error was committed in the computation of the votes cast on the ballots contained therein or in the marking of the ballots contained therein or otherwise in connection with such ballots the court shall make such order as shall be appropriate to enable the ballot box and the contents thereof to be available as evidence in any prosecution which may be begun against any person or persons alleged to be guilty of such act of fraud or error

Section 7 All acts or parts of acts in conflict or inconsistent with this act or any part thereof are hereby repealed so far as they are inconsistent herewith

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MEMORIAL SERVICES ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE WILLIAM J. McNICHOL, LATE SENATOR FROM THE THIRD DISTRICT.

The Senate met at two-thirty o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Samuel W. Salus) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. This being the time fixed by the Resolution for holding the memorial services on the death of Honorable William J. McNichol, late Senator from the Third District, the Senate will be in order and will be opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, we gather here this afternoon with very precious memories out of tender hearts. We come this afternoon in this session to talk of the men and bring to our memories the good things of the past. May the blessing of God rest on this service. May something be said to help those who have been left behind. And may the memory of these characters that have gone help us to be better men in the service that is to follow. Help us in our deliberations, in our talks, that good may come out of all this. We ask in Christ's name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. I want to say a word, fellow members of the Senate, that you all realize the position we find ourselves in this afternoon. It is an unusual memorial service, because of the number of Senators for whom we are congregated today to pass our last respects, and wishing them the goodwill of the Almighty.

Certainly it is the first time in my experience as a Senator on which this body convened to pay respect to four of our former members. It is a time when we can well afford to sit by and wonder what all this life means. In our hurly burly everyday existence we oft-times are liable to forget the many vicissitudes of life and the many hardships and the many unpleasant moments spent by men in public life in their endeavor to do the right and honorable and just thing by their fellowman; and ofttimes during their life, and particularly their political life, they are very much misunderstood.

And it is well that on occasions such as this we should assemble, pause and think, and take these moments in order to pay due honor and homage to those men who have sacrificed the best part of their lives in order that they may be of some benefit to their fellowman and to humanity in general.

The only credit and glory that a man can get in public life is the self satisfaction that he himself has when he believes that he has tried to do the right thing by his fellowman; and, when he goes home in the evening, the conviction that he has done some good for someone even though the public may not appreciate it.

We are holding these memorial services this afternoon for four men. I have had the honor and pleasure to be associated with them in this Senate. I knew them in their life. I knew them in their work. And I know that each one of these four men was a high-grade, high-class, good American citizen, who had at heart the interests of not only their homes but of the community in general and of the great State of Pennsylvania.

It is well, it is fitting, it is proper that we should be here today with our heads bowed in sorrow and in respect, in order that a message may go home to the firesides from which these men came, so that the folks at home may know that although these loved ones have gone to the Great Beyond, we, the Senators of Pennsylvania, have had our heart strings touched, and have our deep feeling and sympathy for the sorrow of those in the different corners of the State who by these simple services will have the memories of their departed fathers, husbands, companions, as the case may be, resurrected, and their names again placed on the records of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE WILLIAM J. McNICHOL, LATE SENATOR FROM THE THIRD DISTRICT.

Mr. ARON offered the following Resolution, which was twice read:

Whereas, On Wednesday, December Fifteenth, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-six, Almighty God in His wisdom called from us our fellow Senator and friend, the Honorable William J. McNichol, of the Third District of Philadelphia County; and

Whereas, This Body desires to enter its testimony in appreciation of the sterling qualities of our late member; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby records its high estimate of our late associate as a citizen, a legislator and a man;

Resolved, That in the death of Senator McNichol the Commonwealth has lost one of its most substantial citizens, the Senate a faithful and efficient member and we, his associates, an honored and trustworthy friend;

Resolved, That we tender to his family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in the great loss they have suffered;

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, signed by the President and attested by the Clerk, be sent to the family of the deceased.

MAX ARON.
Chairman
Wm. C. HUNSICKER.
M. G. LESLIE.
JAMES E. MORTON.
HARRY H. LAMB.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr ARON. Mr. President, We are met here this afternoon to pay the Senate's last respect to the memory of a former member, the Hon. Wm. J. McNichol. I offer this resolution with deep sorrow. I was shocked when I learned on December 15th, 1926, that my friend had died because he was a young man, only 42 years of age and did not get the chance to make a career for himself or even to get a fair understanding of this world. The entire city was in bereavement.

Wm. J. McNichol was born in Philadelphia, May 1st, 1885. He was the son of James P. McNichol, who served in this Senate for many years and was one of the most powerful political leaders in Pennsylvania. When he died in 1917, Wm. J. McNichol succeeded him. Strange to say, the son was very unlike his father.

Wm. J. McNichol was kind and courteous and always would give a helping hand. He never refused to aid in any charitable movement. He was a loving husband and a good father, a dear friend and a faithful servant of the people.

Oh! why should the Spirit of Mortal be proud
    Like a swift-fleeting meteor, a fast-flying cloud?
A flash of the lightning, a break of the wave
    Man passes from life to his rest in the grave.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, my connection with the late Senator William J. McNichol was of the most pleasant character. I found him to be a man who was extremely modest in every act and deed, and charitable to such a degree that he would go to the extreme limit of his strength and vigor to help to assist his fellowman.

He had a number of traits of his dear father, with whom I was more intimately acquainted; and he endeavored to perpetuate his father's traditions. I can express my appreciation of his character in a few words, by saying that he gave his heart and his soul to his family and to his friends. I have known on a number of occasions of appeals made to him, in a sympathetic way, because of the needs and necessities of his constituents in his home senatorial district; and he never failed to respond.

In his official conduct in the Senate he was always prompt in attendance, always active in his work; but always modest, and always having an appreciation of the rights of his fellow members. This attitude had to be seen to be fully appreciated, as it was by all of us.

His loss to his family certainly is of the most serious character; but his loss to this Senate and to Pennsylvania must be noted, because he was a faithful servant of the people. It is like all other problems in this world,—men who lend their lives to do and act in the public service are not known, in the true sense, or appreciated in the true sense until after they have passed away.

This loss is not to be forgotten. It will be remembered by the members of this Senate who were associated with him as long as they live, because I know of not one single act or deed in his life that was not commendable and that was not done in the full activity and spirit of a duty he was performing in the interests of the people of Pennsylvania.

Therefore, I say that we all have to wait for the dawn. And we all live for a single purpose,—to aid, assist, perpetuate the big things, the noble things; to try to have those who follow us recognize that it is only through acts of service rendered and through time given that the members of this body can understand and appreciate our motives of goodwill and our intentions to do what is right. And it is only through lives of service that those who go, one by one,—as we will all have to go, one by one—will have the record of their deeds imprinted upon the pages of the history of this State, never to be effaced.

I know that the name of the illustrious father who preceded Senator William J. McNichol will never be forgotten; and I know now, after this meeting is over, that the name of the son will be likewise recorded in the archives of this Commonwealth as one of the outstanding characters and representatives of this great State.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President and members of the Senate: I want to express to you Mrs. McNichol's regret at not being able to be present at this, her husband's memorial service. But the mother's duty overshadows the desire she had to give expression to her respect and honor to the memory of her husband,—one of her children is very ill with pneumonia, and this necessitated her staying in Philadelphia.

Senator McNichol was my neighbor, but unfortunately, as often happens in a city of the size of Philadelphia, we had not become personally acquainted. So I cannot speak from standpoint of intimacy with the late Senator McNichol. I knew his father very well, and I can only express to this body and to the assembled friends the wonderful heritage of the McNichol name, which was handed from father to son and, I feel, partially handed on to me, since I succeed them and assume their seat in this Senate.

I knew the Senator, as I say, only as a neighbor; but I saw his devotion to his family. His automobile would stand in front of the house, and when he would come home he would load it up with his youngsters and take them out,—and he had a large family.

Any man who inherits the name of McNichol through this devoted husband and son, as I knew him to be,—as a neighbor, can receive only the greatest eulogy of praise as a memorial to the name of the Senator.

I feel that I have inherited from the McNichols a duty, and I want to live up to that duty,—the duty of political probity and political energy and of party affiliation.

MEMORIAL SERVICES ON THE DEATH OF HONORORABLE MARVIN E. GRISWOLD, LATE SENATOR FROM THE FORTY-NINTH DISTRICT.

The Senate met at three o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Samuel W. Salus) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. This being the time fixed by the Resolution for holding the memorial services on the death of Honorable Marvin E. Griswold, late Senator from the Forty-ninth District, the Senate will be in order and will be opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

PRAYER.

The Acting-Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, help us to realize that there is no one good or great but God alone; that a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past; that Thou art of eternity and we are of time; that with the passing of the members of this Senate, and especially of this Senator from the shores of Lake Erie, there may be brought home to our hearts the transitoriness of life; that life is a shadow that soon vanisheth away. Therefore help each one of us to so live that when we are called into God's great eternal tomorrow there may abide over our lives many benedictions, not only of the members of the family and friends but of co-workers in the service of the State.

Abide this day over the home and over the loved ones of this Senator, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE MARVIN E. GRISWOLD, LATE SENATOR FROM THE FORTY-NINTH DISTRICT.

Mr. STEELE, offered the following resolution which was twice read:

Whereas On January third, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, on the eve of the meeting of the one hundred twenty-seventh session of the General Assembly, Senator Marvin E. Griswold was suddenly called from the activities of this life; and

Whereas This body desires to express its high regard for him as a citizen and a worthy associate in the Senate of Pennsylvania,

Resolved That we record our deep sense of loss sustained in the death of Senator Marvin E. Griswold and that we express our appreciation of his splendid character as a man and bear testimony to his faithful and efficient service as a member of the Senate,

Resolved That we express to his family our sincere sympathy in the great loss they have sustained and cherish with them the memory of his attainments and achievements; and

Resolved That a copy of these resolutions, duly attested be forwarded to his family.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President: Within the brief space of twelve months death five times called his roll in the Senate of Pennsylvania and five Senators have answered to their names.

The Senator from Erie, Marvin E. Griswold, answered this call at a time when we were assembling for the nineteen hundred twenty-seven session and many were the expressions of sorrow when the message conveying the news of his death was received.

Senator Griswold was a true American. He was born in the city of Erie, Pennsylvania, November eighteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight. He grew up in company with boys like himself, honest, industrious, self respecting. In early life he developed those moral convictions and intellectual opinions that form the most distinctive possession of the best American character. He was educated in the public schools, the Erie Academy and Yale University, graduating in the class of eighteen hundred ninety.

During eighteen hundred ninety-one and eighteen hundred ninety-two he was associated with Horace S. Ely and Company, New York City, in the real estate business, and from eighteen hundred ninety-two was connected with the Griswold Manufacturing Company, of which he was president at the time of his death.

He was a member of the board of education of Erie and for fourteen years his practical wisdom and intellectual power combined with a clearness of vision contributed much to the development of education in his home city.

He served his State as a member of the Republican National Convention of nineteen hundred twenty, and in nineteen hundred twenty-four was elected to the State Senate. His services in the Senate were characterized by a marked ability to deal with all public questions and he possessed those qualifications of leadership which speedily won recognition in the solution of problems of State.

He lived a useful life full of good works and achieved high distinction in all his activities.

It was not alone his education and his varied experiences in business and public life that enabled him to reach the high place of his distinguished career, but it was also the fact that he was an honest, upright, loveable citizen, tender and devoted to his family, and truthful, generous, moral and clean in every relation of life. In unselfish service he gave his life to his community and his country.

He was conscientious and earnest in the discharge of his duties and planned to be present at the opening session of the Senate when he was suddenly taken ill and called from the midst of his achievements.

The memory of his life should inspire in us devotion to the welfare of the State and prompt us to range ourselves on the side of every force that makes for National righteousness.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. President, I had the privilege and pleasure to be a Member of the Senate during the service of Marvin E. Griswold, to whose memory we wish to pay honor and tributes of love and respect in this meeting to-day.

His death at the comparatively early age of 58 years, took from our midst a staunch friend; an able man and a useful Senator. Quiet and unassuming in manner, assured and self-reliant as you came to know him better he was exceedingly genial and full of good fellowship, an entertaining and delightful social companion.

In my association and contact with him I learned to honor and highly esteem him and to have deep regard for his judgment and opinions. He always worked for the best legislation as he understood it. He was never hasty in making a decision on any problem when presented to him, but when he reached a conclusion you could feel satisfied that it was only after mature thought and consideration and that full reliance could be placed on its soundness

In his death the City of Erie, the County of Erie which comprised his Senatorial District and our State suffered an irreparable loss and those of us who were more closely associated with him in a legislative way, mourn the loss of a wise counsellor and friend.

He was a member of the Park Presbyterian Church of Erie and services in his memory were conducted by his Pastor, the Reverend Harry Burton Boyd, at the family residence, 255 West Tenth Street, at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, January 5, 1927.

After the final prayers and songs were offered, Dr. Boyd called upon the Reverend George P. Donehoo, Chaplain of the Senate, on this occasion, who delivered the following eulogy:

Paying as he said, his humble tribute to Senator Griswold, whom he had known well, Dr. Donehoo declared that words were inadequate to describe the man's honesty, sincerity and devotion to his home and duties, and especially on this particular occasion as only a week ago Thursday he had attended the funeral services of his brother who suddenly had died under similar circumstances to that attending the death of Senator Griswold.

I feel it a great honor to be here to-day as a representative of the State Government to express this tribute of respect and affection and love of his colleagues in the General Assembly of the State for Senator Griswold.

I always feel that the tribute shown by friends in one's own home town 's the most sincere and most gracious treatment that can be given one who has departed.

Senator Griswold was not only a member of the official family in Harrisburg, and those of us who are here are not here officially but here to honor and associate and to pay him the sincere tribute of love and affection that is due him.

Here was a man who was sincere and conscientious. He tried to do his duty to the State and to the people he represented. In these days when we hear stories of all kinds about our law-makers it is an honor to know that the people are being served by men such as this man.

It takes sincerity and honesty and a God-fearing spirit to carry on in the face of such talk, coming as it does from people high in the social and official circles of the State. The great honor of our American democracy are men like Senator Griswold. He was devoted to the ideals he had ever before his mind and in his heart.

These attacks are all unfounded and I believe from my associationss during the past five years with members of the General Assembly in Harrisburg, that a more honorable, sincere and patriotic group of men do not exist anywhere in America than the lawmakers of this glorious State.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, This occasion gives me peculiar sadness owing to the fact that my entry into this Honorable body was occasioned by the loss of my esteemed friend, Marvin Elihu Griswold, of the Forty-ninth Senatorial District. For,

> There is a reaper whose name is death;
> And with his sickle keen,
> He reaps the bearded grain at a breath;
> And the flowers that grow between

On January 3, 1927, in the City of Erie, Pennsylvania

> There fell upon the house a sudden glow
> A shadow on those features fair and thin,
> And softly from that hushed and darkened room
> Two angels issued, where but one went in.

Mr. President, it is beyond my humble ability to suffciently eulogize so great a man. What he has done will live in the hearts of his friends far longer than any humble words we may here say in his memory. So it seems more fitting and proper that a concise statement of his life achievements be given rather than an attempt at an oratorical remembrance.

The late Senator died suddenly of a heart attack in the City of Erie on January third last. He had been taken ill about a week earlier but had apparently recovered. His first illness was noticed at a meeting of the sales force of the Griswold Manufacturing Company. The Senator had looked forward with pleasure to the incoming session of this Honorable body but through the advice of his physician, Dr. Charles G. Strickland, his transportation for Sunday, January second, was cancelled and he was suddenly stricken on Monday afternoon as he was about to enter the Hamot Hospital, to which institution he had motored in the family car.

Mr. Griswold was born in Erie November 18, 1868, educated in the public schools and fitted for college in the old Erie Academy; graduating from Yale in 1890, where he took an academic course. After his graduation he was connected with Horace S. Ely and Co., brokers of New York City, from 1891 to 1893, returning to Erie to become Treasurer of the Shaw Piano Company which position he held until 1897 and was afterward associated with the Griswold Manufacturing Company, internationally known as manufacturers of metal kitchen ware, a company which was organized by his illustrious father, Matthew Griswold, [Sr.], who at one time represented the Twenty-fifth Congressional District at Washington. The late Senator was President of this Company at the time of his death.

He was a director of the Erie Board of Commerce and its President in 1903 and was a member of the Board of Education for many years. Director of the Security Savings and Trust Company Bank and the Y. M. C. A.; Trustee of the Park Presbyterian Church and served as its President for five years. In 1920 delegate to the Republican National Convention from his home district and was a member of this Honorable body since 1924. Whose record shows his sterling service and his membership to so many important committees.

He was married in 1895 to Leila Lee of New Castle, Pa., the nuptials being one of the society events of that time. Mrs. Griswold survives with a son, Lee Griswold. He also leaves a brother, Matthew Griswold, General Manager of the General Electric Works, Erie, Pa.; three half brothers, William E. S. Griswold, Ely Griswold and Roger W. Griswold. Another half brother, Dwight T. Griswold, died in 1908.

Senator Griswold was faithful to his duties and to his friends. He was a thorough organization man, widely respected and dearly beloved by everyone. He believed in the brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God. He was calm in hours of diversity but staunch and true in moments of decision. His word in private life or public duty was as good as his bond. His interest in the education of the young was a notable trait and for many years he gave his time and attention to the improvement of Erie's Public School System.

His term of service was marked by progressiveness and broadness of vision and in the words of Alfred Tennyson

> For he dipt into the future
> Far as human eye could see
> Saw the Vision of the world
> And all the wonder that would be.

Permit me, Mr. President, to take of your time in recounting briefly his achievements as a member of the School Board of Erie, Pennsylvania. He served on the Board of Education before the adoption of the School Code representing the Third Ward from June, 1910, to December, 1911, and after the code, for a period of twelve years, representing the City at large until December, 1923. Twice was he Vice-President and twice President of the Board and during the last seven years of his membership he was Chairman of the Finance and Property Committee.

Prior to Mr. Griswold's term of office the only work done in Mechanical Arts and Sciences was a small department in old school No. 11 at 11th and French Streets. Mr. Griswold was largely responsible in persuading the Trustees of the Old Academy at 9th and Peach Streets to turn over their holdings representing about $300,000.00 to the City Board of Education. These funds were used in purchasing the site and in the erection of the present Academy High School, one of the finest and most completely equipped schools in the United States of America. Mr. Griswold was greatly interested in the promoting and teaching of Mechanical Arts, which is now represented by the very completely equipped Academy High School. Mr. Griswold was very far sighted in the purchase of desirable property on which to erect school buildings. During his term he saw the erection of eight modern up-to-date buildings including two senior high schools, three junior high schools and three grade schools. We believe that the Erie School System is second to none in the country. Mr. Griswold was instrumental also in the purchase of five additional sites which are held in reserve for Erie's future building program. Recently we dedicated to his memory the Marvin E. Griswold Library of the Public School system.

All that was worldly of him we loved so well has passed to the grave and the spirit now abides in Paradise. Senator Griswould has been sadly missed. The people have lost a true friend and the State a gifted and brilliant son. His Christian character can well be exemplified by others and in his daily life I am sure he continually put into practice the beautiful sentiment in Bryant's "Thanatopsis" which says:

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

And so it is, Mr. President, that we shall see him no more until we too have crossed the great divide. For

"One by one the Great-All Father
Gently lets his seasons fall,
One by one the storm and sunshine,
Cast their shadows over all.

One by one we lose the hand grasp
That so warm a welcome gave,
One by one their voices silence
In the stillness of the grave.

One by one we miss the faces
Of the forms we once cares't
One by one their names are written
Ceased to labor, home, at rest."

MEMORIAL SERVICES ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE T. L. EYRE, LATE SENATOR FROM THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT.

The Senate met at three-thirty o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Samuel W. Salus) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. This being the time fixed by the Resolution for holding the memorial services on the death of Honorable T. L. Eyre, late Senator from the Nineteenth District, the Senate will be in order and will be opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

O God, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. There would be no happiness without Thee. We can look beyond the creation. We can look beyond the stars which we can see to worlds which we cannot see by faith, on through the everlasting open gates.

We thank Thee for this prospect,—that it is not all ended when we go down into the grave, that our life continues. And we come today to honor the memory of this man who sat in this Senate Chamber. We know that in the great battle of politics men are misunderstood. It would be better if they were not misunderstood. We would come closer together if we understood each other better, but it is simply because we do not understand each other better that so much trouble arises in our lives.

And we thank Thee for his life. We thank Thee for his service to the State. We thank Thee for his home life. We thank Thee for all these things; and we would honor his memory today. We cannot forget the men who, whatever our impatience in the past, have rendered a service that we cannot but recognize. All these things come to us with a tenderness that causes a tear to run down our cheek.

So we leave him with Thee. His ear is closed,—he cannot hear what we say; but we would just find some peace, and help in the midst of life's duties, and gain some inspiration in this hour that our lives may again have something that will lead us to be friendly to each other. And when things seem to be a little objectionable to us may we get a clear understanding of ourselves, so that when we go down to death's hour we will be so affectionate in heart and so fixed in purpose that we will have no regrets.

May Thy blessing rest upon these Senators. Before the next Legislative session arrives some of these Senators may be gone. Be with them. Cheer our hearts. May we do the right thing, and may the blessing of God be on the families that are left. The consolation of Thy grace is greater than any sorrow that can come to us.

Hear us, then, in the name of Him who laid down His life for us, we ask. Amen.

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE T. L. EYRE, LATE SENATOR FROM THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT.

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following Resolution, which was twice read.

Whereas, It hath pleased the Divine and All-wise Providence to call from his earthly abode, our late Colleague, the Honorable T. Lawrence Eyre, Senator from the Chester County District of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, His important and almost lifelong official services were such as to bring him distinction and mark him as one of our Commonwealth's foremost citizens, and whose pleasing personality and friendly disposition brought to him the friendship and respect of his associates, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate give expression of the loss it has sustained by the death of our colleague and friend, whose qualities of mind and heart brought to him prominence and honor.

Resolved, That we extend to his family, bereaved of his manly and tender presence, our heartfelt sympathy, and pray for them that consolation that can only come from the Great Providence, which doeth all things well, and we join with them in the satisfaction of the recollection and memory of his life-work so useful and well done.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, duly engrossed and attested, be forwarded to his family.

JOHN G. HOMSHER.
WILLIAM H. CLARK.
MAX ARON.
HENRY E. LANIUS.
NORMAN L. BONBRAKE.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, It is fitting that we should pause to note a memorial to one man who was for so long a time and in so prominent a manner identified with the public affairs of his home county and the state as was our Colleague, Senator T. Lawrence Eyre.

His passing admonishes us that our tenure here is of very uncertain, and at longest, of but short duration, and his pleasing personality and abilities remain to us an inspiration and pleasant and lasting recollection.

I shall not at this busy hour attempt any extended rehearsal of the many activities of his life's work. He was born May 24, 1862, in Delaware County, this state, and attended the public schools and West Chester Normal School. His first appearance in public affairs was when he became Secretary to Congressman Butler in 1887. He was then twenty-five years old and from then on during all his life he was identified in some field of public service, either as the incumbent of a position of responsibility or as an active and capable adherent of the principles and policies of government and administration in which he believed.

He attained more than an ordinary measure of success in all the lines of his endeavor and died before he was yet an old man. He was in fact one of the kind of men who do not grow old, because their interest in the progress and improvement of their time keeps them young in thought and in activities.

Senator Eyre was a man of striking personality and was possessed of such a refined and delicate charm of manner that made him a marked man in any assemblage. These qualities may cultivate but they cannot be assumed. They must emanate from the spirit within of kindness, fairness and generosity, and no man can long appear other than the sentiments he holds and cultivates would make him. It would be well indeed if more attention would be paid to the cultivation of those ethics, which he exemplified in such a full degree, in our education. Their possession adds a brilliancy to any other attainments no matter how profound or exalted they may otherwise be.

Few men in the nine millions that make up the population of our state, had a wider, or a longer experience in public affairs, or a more comprehensive knowledge of all that enters into the management of public affairs, nor a more intimate acquaintanceship with the people.

Born of the sturdy Quaker stock which has worked such beneficent influences in the formation and progress of our great Commonwealth, he was a worthy scion and exemplar of the citizenship of his ancestors.

We feel a bereavement at his departure, but we are glad that we have known him and been associated with him, and we believe that he added an element of good to the times in which he lived.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President; Members of the Senate; Ladies and Gentlemen: We have assembled this afternoon to perform a very sad duty and to pay honor to our friend and late Senator, T. Lawrence Eyre, who has departed from this life forever but who is not forgotten.

It has been my privilege to have known and to have been closely associated with Senator Eyre for many years. I have known him from a social standpoint; I have known him from a business standpoint and I have known him from a political standpoint and at all times he believed in playing the game in the open and by making his word as good as his bond.

Senator Eyre was in every sense a self made man, starting life under difficult circumstances but he possessed all the necessary qaulifications for leadership and soon rose to prominence. Success and influence soon followed and at the time of his death he was one of the best known and most highly respected men in the state and surely no man's council was ever more sought than his.

Throughout all the years I have known him, I never knew him to turn a deaf ear to anyone. His office was always open to people of all classes. He will be sadly missed by many a destitute family; by the hospitals and many other charitable institutions.

Attending Senator Eyre's funeral, I was very much impressed by the number of people of all stations in life and by the sorrow manifested there, showing conclusively his great popularity and the high esteem in which he was held by the people in his community.

In his death we have all lost a true friend, a wise counsellor and his family have lost their all.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate of Pennsylvania, we have within a very short time mourned the death of a succession of our colleagues illustrious for their services, renowned for their talents and appreciated for their worth. Within eleven months the portals of the tomb closed upon five of the gifted and distinguished members of this chamber, and we are here this afternoon in this sacred session to pay our last tribute of love and respect to their blessed and their cherished memory.

This is an hour for serious reflection and for solemn meditation of things not temporal but eternal. We meet not to grieve but to glorify. We do not contemplate the paleness of death but we fondly recall the goodness, the manliness and the brotherly love that we knew in the living while we try with the eye of faith to catch some glimpse of the glories of that realm to which their spirits have ascended.

No more fitting or beautiful custom has ever been instituted than this simple ceremonial, this modest and entirely appropriate commemoration of the virtues of the dead. There is not one among us but who is better for such an occasion. We are drawn away from the world where the cares and the duties toward the living are constantly before us. The drudgery of everyday life, dreams of ambition and visionary aspirations may harden and warp our natures, but in the tenderness of our thoughts of the loved ones gone, in the kindness of our expressions of those departed, in the sincerity with which we bring our humblest tributes of respect, we become softened in our whole being and at peace with the whole world.

Larry Eyre, as we were glad to know him and shall be pleased to remember him, was a man of superior parts, a man among men, a natural born leader of men; for many years the astute political leader of his own county and a forceful figure in the political life of not only his own county of Chester but of the entire Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Wise in counsel, devoted to his party and to his party's convictions, loyal and true to his friends, who were loyal and true to him—as was manifest on many occasions throughout his political career.

And what higher compliment can be paid to man than to say that those who have known him longest and known him best, those who were his playmates and his schoolmates in those olden, golden yesterdays, those who grew up with him to maturity, who were his associates and his neighbors during the active years of his life, and those who were his constituents in these latter and declining years, loved, honored and respected him?

Larry Eyre was human just as we are human. He had failings just as we have failings. But, gentlemen of the Senate, humanity at best is weak and faulty, and as we meet this afternoon let us meet with dispositions richly endowed with generosity and mercy, let us be more considerate and less exacting, more liberal and less selfish, more kindly and less critical, more just and less egotis- fellowman and the judgment of the world. Throw over his tical. Draw the veil of oblivion between the failures of our shortcomings the armour of faith, the shield of love, and the mantle of charity. Practice not that charity alone of bestowing food and raiment, not that charity alone which seeks out the homes of want and of wretchedness, not that charity alone of giving gold and silver to the poor and to the needy; but let us practice a charity infinitely higher and grander and nobler than any other, a charity of the heart rather than of the hand, one which tempers the zeal of our criticism, which stimulates the spirit of our generosity and which would ever conceal the faults of our fellowman with the cloak of fraternal sympathy. Let us practice a charity that suffereth long and is kind, a charity that beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Let us practice, insofar as our weakened humanity is enabled, that same charity that we shall expect to receive, and in all probability need, on that final day of atonement for sin at the hands of an All-Merciful and an All-Powerful God.

The beauty of charity is not for me to describe. It is held in the Great Hand that alone paints the perfect picture and in the Great Heart that alone can grasp the full meaning and conceive the height and the depth of unbounded love.

And when our frail barks, as have those of our colleagues who have gone before, been cast adrift upon an unknown and possibly a tempestuous sea, may it be only to anchor safely on the other side of the river of that Great Divide; and there may we hear with them that blessed summons, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the memorial session of the Senate do now adjourn.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I second the motiin.

The motion was agreed to.

MEMORIAL SERVICES ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE EDWARD W. PATTON, LATE SENATOR FROM THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

The Senate met at four o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Samuel W. Salus) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. This being the time fixed by the Resolution for holding the memorial services on the death of Honorable Edward W. Patton, late Senator from the Fourth District, the Senate will be in order and will be opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

Our Father, it is fitting that we should pause here a moment to honor the memory of one who has made his way to this Chamber and the Halls of this Assembly for twelve years or more. We pause just at this time when it is a good thing, because we always remember him for what he was and what he did in his service to the State, service even to the church and to his fellow-man. He was a Christian gentleman, and when we say that we mean a man through and through. So we pray that Thy blessing may rest upon the family at this time. May his memory be very precious to them, and it always will be no doubt, and may it be very precious to us. May we forget the faults of our brethren and remember their virtues that it may some how or other in this great battle of life help us to forget our differences, help us to lay aside our animosities, help us to be filled with love for each other; and then when the day comes that we must surrender our arms to Thy name, to whom men surrender on the battlefield of life, we can go away in peace, knowing that we have left behind friends who will remember us. We have a feeling to be remembered, everyone wants to be remembered. And so Lord we pray Thee that we may live that in days to come when we close our earthly career that we may close it with joy and peace. May the blessing of God rest upon the sorrowing ones. Comfort their hearts, cheer them. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE EDWARD W. PATTON, LATE SENATOR FROM THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

Mr. FRAZIER offered the following Resolution, which was twice read:

Whereas, On the sixth day of April last, the Honorable years in the Landis Battery Volunteers, through the years spent in service to his city, his State, and his country, lay down at the end of the trail and peacefully slept into eternity, with his life's work finished, his labor done, his service ended, and his duty accomplished, and

Whereas, From his enlistment at the age of seventeen years in the Landis Battery Volunteers, thriugh the years that followed in the United States Navy, during the Civil War, as an officer in the National Guard, as a member of the councils of the city of Philadelphia from one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven to one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, as a member of this Senate, his entire span of years was filled with labor for the benefit of his fellowmen, and

Whereas, A life so crowded with service for, and love of, others set him apart as one loved and respected and honored by all, and brought to the years that marked the setting of his sun, and ere the midnight shadows fell, the peace that means contentment, the glory that arises from the love of others, and the honor that follows from service and devotion to duty, and

Whereas, His death has brought to the Members of this Senate a keener realization of his kindliness and his faithfulness which has inspired a deep desire to pay a tribute of respect to his memory, and make a permanent record of his life and his work, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of the Honorable Edward Wagner Patton, the city of Philadelphia has lost an eminent citizen and faithful servant, the Commonwealth has been deprived of the services of an able legislator and the Nation has had added to its roll of departed patriots, the name of one who offered his all in its defense, and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Senate, and a copy thereof, properly engrossed be forwarded to the surviving members of his family.

GEO. WOODWARD.
BERTRAM E. FRAZIER,
CLARENCE J. BUCKMAN,
ALBERT DAVIS.
WM. H. EARNEST.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President and Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, in rising to move the adoption of the Resolution just read, I am conscious of my weakness and inability to properly pay tribute to the respect of a man who had such a brilliant career in the City of Philadelphia, and the State of Pennsylvania, as our departed brother, Senator Patton.

Senator Patton was known in this body as the Grand Old Man of the Senate of Pennsylvania. He has ceased to move among us. We mourn his going, but how thankful we are for his life and for his example which were given to us from day to day.

Senator Patton was born at Fifth and Spruce streets, Philadelphia, on June 9th, 1846. He died April 6th, 1926. He served in the Landis Battery of th Pennsylvania Volunteers during the Civil War in 1863, and in the United States Navy on the U. S. S. Massachusetts and Donegal until January, 1865. He also served as Chief Clerk to Major Etting, U. S. A. Chief Paymaster, Pay District of Pennsylvania, from May, 1865, to August, 1867. He was First Lieutenant and Quartermaster, Third Regiment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania until 1880, and served on the Division Staff of the National Guard of Pennsylvania as Major and Aide-de-Camp, Lieutenant Colonel and Commissary under Generals Hartranft and Snowden until 1892.

Mr. President, what a record from a military standpoint, I have just read.

Mr. President, at this point let me call the attention of the members of the Senate to this fact: Senator Patton was, as I have said, a Civil War veteran. He was the last of his race. According to the laws of nature there never can be a Civil War veteran sitting in the Senate of Pennsylvania, at least such is hardly possible. In March, 1877, Senator Patton was elected to the Select Council of the City of Philadelphia and he served in that body with distinction continuously from that time until January 1st, 1915, at which time he resigned to become a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, and he remained a member of this body until the date of his death.

Mr. President, think of it! Forty nine continuous years of legislative service. Where is there an equal of that record? Those of us who knew him know his sterling qualities. To know him was to love him. He represented a constituency of 360,000 people, the largest central district in the State of Pennsylvania, the central district known as the Fourth District of Pennsylvania, being made up largely, or entirely of West Philadelphia, with a high grade citizenship. One man representing 360,000 people.

Those of us who knew him, knew with what ability and satisfaction he served those people. During the 12 years he was a member of this body he represented his district with such conspicuous ability that he was returned from time to time almost without opposition. Even on the day of his death his name was again about to be placed on the ballot for reelection for four more years, notwithstanding that he was then almost 80 years of age.

Mr. President, what a lesson there is in a life like that of a man who would keep on and on notwithstanding his advancing years. Many times I have seen Senator Patton speaking to younger men of the Senate and taking the position and showing by his very thought and action that he was just as full of vitality as the youngest member of this body. During his time I have been rather closely associated with him. He spent his summer months at his summer home in my Senatorial District and for a great many years he had his office right next to my office in the City of Philadelphia. On many, many occasions during a lull in business he would come into my office, or I would go into his, and whenever he came into my office, even though I did not see him enter the door, I could almost feel his presence. He was just like a ray of sunshine when he entered the door.

Senator Patton was always considerate of his fellowman, including his opponents. He showed feeling and consideration to those who entertained opposite views than those entertained by him. He did not always vote as some of the rest of us did, but after the vote was taken and the result announced, that was the end of the matter, there was no hard feeling. During all these years I cannot say, I do not think there is any record and I do not think any one will ever know of the charities performed by Senator Patton, of the young men and young women who were helped to obtain a higher education by his generosity and interest.

Mr. President, we mourn his loss, but we are more than thankful for the life that he has led and the example that he has given to us.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, a number of centuries ago a group of sages were sitting together discussing life and death and immortality, and one of them compared the time of a man's life to the flight of a bird through a lighted building, coming from no one knows whence, through a window and into the lighted room, through the room and out another window into the great beyond. The period of life, of course, being represented by the very very short period of time that it would take a bird to fly through the room. And that is true whether we take the life of so young a man as the friendly McNichol, or the life of my beloved friend, Marvin Griswold, or the life of the courteous Eyre, or the life of the one we considered the elderly gentleman, Senator Patton.

I have been reading a biography of the Father of our Country, and in it the author states—and I am not saying that we should agree with him, but it is the phrase that he used that I am calling attention to,—that after the Revolutionary War Washington returned to Mount Vernon "grey inside" and that is the trouble with the world today. It seems to be "grey inside." Youth sometimes seems to be blase and tired of life. How refreshing it is to have known a man like Senator Patton, who never seemed to be "grey inside." He was always youthlul and cheery and I think that probably can be attributed, in part, to his disposition, but also by reason of the life that he lived and the service that he rendered. His life was very worth while. He had served his country in time of need. He had served his city for 37 or 38 years and, as I understand, with a forward looking service that brought to that section, which might be compared to other cities of the country as a city sixteenth in size of all the cities in the country,and he was so forward looking that the sewerage system and the water system that he was largely responsible for as a member of the Finance and the sub-Finance Committee of Council as twenty years ahead of its time and need.

A man who is willing to serve andwho can serve with such a satisfactory service has done something that may well make him feel "young inside." A little incident came to my attention when Senator Patton was in the Senate. Some children came here from one of the junior high schools with a paper they were publishing to sell. Senator Patton said to these little girls "Would you like to have a story for your paper from an old man about his first trip as a soldier to Harrisburg?" And he wrote that article and I said to him: "Senator Patton, you ought to sign your name to that, let them know who this soldier is." "Oh" he said "I am not after glory." No one knew who wrote that beautiful little article which no doubt gave those children pleasure and inspiration. He was modest, he was so modest with all his good nature, his youth and his service.

I am glad to pay this tribute to his memory.

They say that the members of the Senate become close friends, as college men become friends, one with the other. Friendship is a golden word, a golden chord, a golden memory. Senator Patton was a friendly man because he knew that in order to obtain friends and hold friends one must show himself friendly.

King Arthur had a magic sword. It was made for him and for him alone. When he was mortally wounded and was approaching immortality the sword, at his direction, was taken and cast into the sea, where a spirit hand removed it from sight and from use forever more. Friendship is not like King Arthur's sword, it is not for one person, nor for a day or for a season, but it is for all of us, and we can well believe that if we are friendly we may be able to render some service and to feel that we have not gone through life in vain.

In the language of another, eulogizing the Father of his country, on the plains of Marathon, nightly can yet be heard the "neighing of chargers and the rushing shadows of spectral war, but over Mount Vernon broods the spirit not of neighing chargers and the rushing shadows of spectral war, but friendship, truth, honor, patriotism, the only imperishable realities of man's being."

I believe that we might say the same of Senator Patton, that over his grave hovers the spirit of patriotism, truth, friendship, honor, kindness and service.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I feel that it is an extraordinary privilege for me as the successor of Senator Patton, to add a few words in support of this resolution which is now before the Senate.

One of the saddest moments of my life was on that beautiful spring day last just about a year ago when with a host of other friends and mourners, I attended the funeral services at the Church of the Saviour of him in whose honor we are now gathered in this memorial service, the late Senator Edward Wagner Patton.

Those of you who attended those services, I feel must have been duly impressed at the character of the mourners, men and women from every walk of life, from the most distinguished to the humblest, were there to evidence their sorrow, love, and devotion, and for hours on the night before, one by one, we took our last earthly look upon the face of him we were to see no more till we also pass to the great beyond.

You in this august body (of which there is no more distinguished in the world) knew him as Senator Patton, and I am informed that since he came to the Senate in the winter of 1915 until the day of his death on April 6th, 1926, he never made an enemy in this body or hurt a friend. It has been my humble privilege to succeed this distinguished and able Senator, and not a day has passed when I am in Harrisburg but I have heard some well merited praise or eulogy of this wonderful character.

Those of you who came into daily, weekly and monthly contact with him in the performance of his duties in this chamber know what an able lovable character he was, what he did in the way of assisting those he came in contact with, the friendships that he made—the lasting friendships, which stayed with him until his death. Bear in mind, however, that he came to you at an age when many a man is laying down the cudgels of strife and preparing for the beyond. Yet during the eleven years of his association in Harrisburg, he was most active in the performance of all his duties and was a leader amongst his associates. His judgment was keen, and his advice sought and relied upon.

He was, as said by Senator Buckman, a native of Philadelphia. Born in 1846 and reared in our public schools. Probably his first trip to Harrisburg was before anybody in this Chamber was born: He was a member of the Landis Battery, Pennsylvania Volunteers. Enlisting in Philadelphia he shortly thereafter was moved to Camp Hill and on the night of his arrival in Harrisburg Camp Hill was bombarded. I am informed that he often sat in his room in the hotel looking over on Camp Hill and musing the days of long ago, when as a mere lad of 16 he came to Harrisburg as a Civil War soldier. I, however, would like to paint for you a little more intimate picture of Senator Patton. You men in this body knew him as Senator Patton, but we from West Philadelphia knew him, loved him and revered him as Colonel Patton, or Daddy Patton. He came to West Philadelphia in his early youth at a time when the 27th ward extended from the Schuylkill River to the County line, south of Market street. Just after his election to council for the first time, I was born, and a year or so after my birth I moved to West Philadelphia, to live across the street from then Councilman Patton, and from that time I knew him, loved him and revered him. Immediately upon attaining his majority he took an active part in politics, and I think the best evidence of the fact that Colonel Patton, or Daddy Patton, as we knew him, was almost the father of West Philadelphia, is the fact that no matter how bitter the strife, how determined the opposition, how strong the political battle was through West Philadelphia, Colonal Patton was returned to council without any break from 1877 until he resigned to come to the Senate.

As has been said by Senator Earnest, at the time Senator Patton went to council West Philadelphia was to a very large extent unpaved, unlighted, ungraded and most of our streets unpaved, and with the vision and forethought that Colonel Patton had through his entire life he was instrumental in making West Philadelphia streets ahead of any other part of the city in the outlying sections, so as it developed West Philadelphia looked upon Colonel Patton as the father of West Philadelphia insofar as developments and improvements were concerned.

He was true and loyal to his friends and kind and considerate to his enemies, if he had any. His home life was ideal. He was a devoted husband and a kind and loving father and while leaving two sterling worthwhile sons to survive him, he has gone home to her whom he loved and adored and whose death was such a blow to him.

Mr. President, in closing, I wish to briefly revert to the remarks made in this Chamber by Senator Patton on April 19th, 1921, at the memorial services to the Honorable David Martin who was his close, personal, intimate friend. Senator Patton said:

> "He was a man, every inch of him, and his advice was eagerly sought, and when followed was absolutely right. He made few mistakes in his life. He was generous, open handed, and always helping somebody. He has gone to his long home, and may it be said of me when I go—it will not be many years now—that I was as good a man to my friends as David Martin."

God bless you, Colonel Patton! We from West Philadelphia can assure you your wish as expressed above has come true.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

HOUSE MESSAGE.

SENATE BILL No. 387 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 387, entitled:

An Act relating to municipal indebtedness; imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs and the officers of counties, cities of the third class, boroughs, towns, townships, school districts of the second, third and fourth classes, and poor districts in connection with proceedings to incur and increase indebtedness, and the establishing and maintaining of sinking funds; fixing the maximum maturity of refunding bonds; and providing penalties.

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read, as follows:

Amend section 5, page 3, line 26, by striking out the word "Bureau" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "Department."

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 308, (HOUSE BILL No. 285).

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 308, (House Bill No. 285), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws one thousand sixty) entitled "An act to provide for licensing and regulating private banking in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing penalties for the violation thereof providing for the distribution of the assets of private bankers in case of insolvency was defeated.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I voted "no".

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I voted "no".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, this bill applies to private banks and it is a Department bill and provides in case of insolvency that the depositors of the banks shall be preferred creditors.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, the Senators seem to be at sea on this bill. It was defeated so overwhelmingly this morning that I would like to interrogate the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, who made this motion. The object of this bill is to place the private banks in the same rank as state banks so far as jurisdiction is concerned of the Banking Department.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, is the intention of this bill to place the private banks in the same rank as the state banks so far as jurisdiction is concerned of the Banking Department?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I think it does.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, It is to put them in the same class as the State banks?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, the main thing about this is in case of failure that the depositors of the banks are preferred creditors.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, mean private banks?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, this bill applies to private banks.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, the assets are to go to the depositors, the same as required of state banks?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, the depositors are preferred creditors.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, this bill simply places the depositors in the same position as depositors are of state banks, In the distribution of the money the depositors are of state banks, In the distribution of the money the depositors are given preference over creditors. As the law is now with reference to private banks the depositors have a preference over the creditors claiming money. So far as the insolvency is concerned the matter of distribution giving the depositors the same status as they have with the state banks.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does it take in the question of any litigation pending and judgment?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, no, not at all, it expresses a preference for depositors, just the same as the law is with reference to our banks.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, let me ask the Senator what is the law now?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, the law now is, as far as our banks are concerned, that if they should fail that preference is given in the matter of distribution by the Department to the depositors.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I am speaking about private banks.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, private banks under distribution between depositors and creditors they are on the same footing. This bill tends to make the depositor a preferred creditor over an ordinary creditor.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I wish to add a word. This bill, the amendment places the distriction of funds of a private banking institution conducted by an individual in the same position as though it it had been a corporation. In other words, the first is to the liability to the depositor, as it should be, and then after that to the general creditors. I think it is a meritorious attempt to meet that particular issue and it has been said a private person now banking, the law is that all creditors share alike. This is to make a depositor a preferred claimant and I think it is proper.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second that motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 5.59 o'clock P. M. until Wednesday morning, March 23, 1927, at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, March 22, 1927.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:—

God, our God, we thank Thee this beautiful morning for life and for all of its benefits and chances and opportunities, and as we rejoice in our health and strength, grant that we may sympathize with those who are in sickness and especially those who are in sorrow. Be to-day in the homes into which the dark shadows of death have come. May we as friends and as companions of those whom we love and who have departed, by our sympathy and by our kindliness to those who are afflicted make the sorrow less poignant. Be with the House and guide it to-day in all that it does, blessing us each one personally and enabling us to do that which is right, we ask in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterdays proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Burns, seconded by Mr. Peelor, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

An Act to amend the act approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and ninety-eight) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof, and certain existing and certain new administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; abolishing, combining, changing the names of, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administration departments, boards, commissions, bureaus, divisions, offices and agencies defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards and commissions; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions, and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined" further reorganizing the conduct of the Executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof; the existing administrative departments, a new administrative department to be known as the Department of Revenue, and certain existing and certain new administrative boards, commissions and officers; abolishing, changing the names or terms of reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative boards, commissions, bureaus, offices and agencies; reorganizing the Department of Internal Affairs, modifying the powers and duties of the Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers and of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions, and defining the powers and duties of certain existing and certain new administrative departments, boards, commissions and officers increasing the salaries of certain executive and administrative officers, and providing for the appointment of and fixing the compensation of or prescribing the manner in which compensation shall be fixed for certain additional administrative officers and of and for the deputies and other assistants and employes in the Department of Internal Affairs, the Department of Revenue, and in certain existing and certain new administrative boards and commissions.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. SARIG offered the following resolution which was twice read and under the rules laid over for printing.

In the House of Representatives, March 22, 1927.

Whereas, it has come to the attention of the members of the House of Representatives through the public press that the schedule of the legislature has been delayed by the absence in Florida and elsewhere of a certain distinguished Pennsylvanian; and

Whereas, little time avails this legislature for the transaction of the public business, if adjournment is to be made, as resolved, April 14, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that the General Assembly, through its presiding officers, appoint a joint committee to wait upon the Honorable W. L. Mellon and ascertain from him at just what periods his services will be available for the General Assembly and to take up with the said Mr. Mellon, if the committee thinks wise, the question of compensation in return for his guidance, counsel, judgment, generalship and direction of the legislative problems of this session, and be it further

Resolved, That in its report back to the General Assembly the committee shall apologize to the people of this Commonwealth for the necessity of the foregoing resolution.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 185, as follows:

An Act authorizing cities of the second class for the purpose of preventing damage from floods to provide for the cleansing improvement regulation and control of streams and rivers lying either in whole or in part within their limits and to construct public works within their respective limits for such purposes and to participate with the United States and this and other states and the several cities counties and other municipal and public corporations through which such rivers or streams flow in constructing such public works in or along such rivers or streams either within or without the limits of such cities and either within or without the limits of this Commonwealth as may be deemed necessary for such purposes and to enter into contracts therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the cities of the second class of this Commonwealth for the purpose of preventing damage from floods are authorized to provide for the cleansing improvement regulation and control of streams and rivers lying either in whole or in part within their limits and to construct public works within their respective limits for such purposes and if the corporate authorities thereof deem it necessary and for the benefit of any such city to participate with the United States and this and other states and the several cities counties and other municipal and public corporations through which such rivers or streams flow in constructing such public works in or along such rivers or streams either within or without the limits of such cities and either within or without the limits of this Commonwealth as may be deemed necessary for such purposes and to enter into contracts therefor but nothing in this act contained shall be construed to repeal in any way or in any way alter or abridge the provisions of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled "An act providing for the regulation of dams or other structures or obstructions as defined herein in along across or projecting into all streams and bodies of water wholly or partly within or forming part of the boundary of this Commonwealth vesting certain powers and duties in the Water Supply Commission of Pennsylvania for this purpose and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof"

Section 2 To facilitate the ends aforesaid such cities are further authorized to make appropriations and expenditures for the purpose of investigating and examining the condition of such rivers or streams or assisting therein and to enter into contracts therefor with the respective other Federal State and local authorities or public agencies vested with power to engage in such undertaking

Section 3 All acts inconsistent herewith general special or local are hereby repealed

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1461, (Senate Bill No. 147), entitled:

An Act fixing the salary of county commissioners in counties of the third [and] fourth fifth and sixth [class] classes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, this is a salary raiser. The bill raises the salaries of county commissioners in the various classes, taking in the sixth class which includes most of the rural districts of this state. I know of no necessity for increasing the salaries of the county commissioners. We are paying our county commissioners at the present time $1800 per year and $400 a year extra for acting as poor commissioners ex-officio. This bill would increase their salary to $3,000 a year or an increase of $1200 to their salary. Our rural districts are simply overburdened with taxes at the present time, and every candidate, every member of this House from a rural district well knows that he has promised to assist in lightening this burden, yet there has been nothing done only to increase the burden, and it is time that this kind of a measure is flagged. In our county we have three county commissioners whose term of office expires this year. All three of them are candidates for re-election, and if they are elected we are simply handing them a present of $1200 a year, when they are begging for the opportunity to continue at the present salary. I am, therefore, emphatically opposed to this bill, and I hope the members of this House will vote it down, as we have got to answer to somebody before long in Pennsylvania on this tax question.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you affects fourth class countiess. Ordinarily I am not in fvaor of salary raisers, but I want to say that this bill is a very good one. You all know that in recent years the work of the county commissioners has been greatly increased, especially since the question of public roads has come up. We have during the year past expended $3,000,000 of county money on public roads. There is not a set of officials in the Berks County Court House that has worked as hard as have the county commissioners, and yet their salary is only $4000, whereas there are county officials getting anywhere from $6000 to $8000. Now, I feel as a matter of equity, as a matter of fairness, they should have as much as other county officials because they hav twice the amount of work, and in some instance three times the amount of work that the other county officials have. I think it is a matter of equity and a matter of fairness, and I believe it is only fair to the county commissioners that we give them this increase. Even if we give them this increase they are still below the other county officials. They are still $1200 below the Prothontary and they are several thousand below the county treasurer, as well as below the Register of Wills. I believe this bill is a fair one and I believe, as I said we should give the money to the gentlemen who do the work. There is no body of men in Pennsylvania today among the county officials that works harder and has more responsibility than have the county ocmmissioners, and I ask you to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading,

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—1.

Weber,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 739 (Senate Bill No. 127), entitled:

An Act classifying patrolmen firemen and fire alarm operators in second class cities for the payment of salaries or compensation providing an election to ascertain the will of the electors as to the minimum salaries or compensation for such employes and fixing the minimum salary or compensation of such employes if the electors vote in favor of the same

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I merely wish to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that this is the identical bill on which the motion was made yesterday to recommit. It is a referendum as to whether or not the voters of Allegheny County shall in the fall election of this year determine whether or not the city police and firemen shall be entitled to an increase. It is merely a referendum and I hope that the members of this House will pass this bill, having passed the Senate, so that the Governor may have an opportunity to decide whether or not such a referendum shall be made a part of our law. I ask each and every member to give their earnest consideration and favorable vote on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I move that the time on House Bill No. 1213, file folio 2323, entitled:

> An Act to repeal the act approved the fourth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and fifty-four) entitled "An act relating to the collection of taxes in the County of Indiana" on page 14, of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed be extended five days.

Mr. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair would like to take up cut of order, for the purpose of advancing the calendar, bills on second reading and then bills on first reading. Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and we will take up bills on second reading at this time.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 318, entitled:

> An Act concerning Arbitration and to Make Valid and Enforceable Written Provisions and Agreements for the Arbitration of Disputes in certain Contracts Including Contracts to which the State or any Municipal Subdivision thereof may be a Party regulating the procedure under such provisions and agreements and conferring certain powers and imposing certain duties upon the courts with reference thereto

The first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh sections were separately read and agreed to as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Validity of Arbitration Agreements A provision in any writtn contract except a contract for personal services to settle by arbitration a controversy thereafter arising out of such contract or out of the refusal to perform the whole or any part thereof or an agreement in writing between two or more persons to submit to arbitration any controversy existing between them at the time of the agreement to submit shall be valid irrevocable and enforceable save upon such grounds as exist at law or in equity for the revocation of any contract Provided however that no person shall be eligible to act as arbitrator who is regularly employed by any party to the controversy whether the contract or agreement so provides or not

Section 2 Stay of Proceedings Brought in Violation of Arbitration Agreement If any suit or proceeding be brought upon any issue referable to arbitration under an agreement in writing for such arbitration the court in which such suit is pending upon being satisfied that the issue involved in such suit or proceeding is referable to arbitration under such an agreement shall on application of one of the parties stay the trial of the action until such arbitration has been had in accordance with the terms of the agreement providing the applicant for the stay is not in default in proceeding with such arbitration

Section 3 Remedy in Case of Default Jurisdiction Petition and Notice Hearing and Proceedings The Party aggrieved by the alleged failure neglect or refusal of another to perform under a written agreeement for arbitration may petition the Court of Common Pleas of the county having jurisdiction for an order to show cause why such arbitration should not proceed in the manner provided for in such agreement Five days' notice in writing of such application shall be served upon the party in default Service thereof shall be made in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons The court shall hear and determine the matter upon the petition and answer and deposition or after hearing of the parties in open court as the court may determine and the court upon being satisfied that the making of the agreement for arbitration or the failure to comply therewith is not at issue the court shall make an order directing the parties to proceed to arbitration in accordance with the terms of the agreement If the making of the arbitration agreement or the failure neglect or refusal to perform the same be at issue the court shall proceed summarily to the trial thereof If a jury trial be waived by the parties the court shall hear and determine such issue or if a jury trial be not waived the court shall direct that a jury trial of such issue shall be had at the earliest possible date If the jury or the court if a jury trial be waived find that no agreement in writing for arbitration was made or that there is no default in proceeding thereunder the proceeding shall be dismissed If the jury or the court if a jury trial be waived find that an agreement for arbitration was made in writing and that there is a default in proceeding thereunder the court shall make an order summarily directing the parties to proceed with the arbitration in accordance with the terms thereof

Section 4 Appointment of Arbitrators If in the agreement provisions be made for a method of naming or appointing arbitrators or an umpire such method shall be followed but if no method be provided therein or if a method be provided and any party thereto shall fail to avail himself of such method or if for any other reason there shall be a lapse in the naming of arbitrators or an umpire or in filling a vacancy or if anv such arbitrators be dispualified to sit then upon the application of either party to the controversy the court shall designate and appoint arbitrators or an umpire as the case may require who shall act under the said agreement with the same force and effect as if he or they had been specifically named therein and unless otherwise provided in the agreement the arbitration shall be by a single arbitrator If one of the arbitrators dies or if for any reason becomes incapacitated after a partial submission of the matter in controversy to the arbitrators then unless the parties agree to proceed with the remaining arbitrators if any or to proceed by adding a new arbitrator to fill the vacancy the said arbitration shall be considered void and of no effect and the parties shall proceed ab initio

Section 5 Court to Make Rules The respective courts of common pleas have the power to make and adopt rules concerning procedure and practice under this act as shall seem to them proper except that no rule shall make any provision contrary to the express provisions of this act

Section 6 Witnesses Summoning Compelling Attendance Taking of Testimony When more than one arbitrator is agreed to all the arbitrators shall sit at the hearing of the case unless by consent in writing all parties shall agree to proceed with the hearing with a less number The arbitrators selected either as prescribed in this act or otherwise may summon in writing any person to attend before them or any of them as a witness and in a proper case to bring with him or them any book record document or paper which may be deemed material as evidence in the case The fees for such attendance shall be the same as the fees if witnesses in courts of general jurisdiction The summons shall issue in the name of the arbitrators and shall be directed to the said person and shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas to appear ant testify before the court if any person so summoned to testify shall refuse or neglect to obey said summons upon petition the court of common pleas of the county in which such arbitrators are sitting may upon proof to the court that the testimony is proper and that the witness could be compelled to appear under existing law had the action been an action at law compel the attendance of such person or persons before said arbitrators or punish said person or persons for contempt in the same manner now provided for securing the attendance of witnesses or their punishment for neglect or refusal to attend in the courts of this State

All testimony shall be taken under oath or affirmation as is now provided in suits at law and shall at the request of either party or the arbitrators be taken stenographically and made a part of the record

Section 7 Depositions Upon petition approved by the arbitrators the court may direct the taking of depositions on behalf of any party to be used in evidence before the arbitrators in accordance with existing law in respect to depositions

The eighth section was read as follows:

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 419, file folio 3253, entitled:

An Act to fix regulate and establish the fees to be charged and received by constables in this Commonwealth on page 4 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, passed finally, be reconsidered.

Mr. MARSTELLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.
The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of this bill has signed this motion with me. The understanding was that this bill was to be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of amendment. The sponsor of the bill and I both agreed to that and this morning it passed this House. The sponsor of this bill has signed this motion with me that the bill be recommitted to the committee on Judiciary General.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that the motion was lost and furthermore, that the bill is not now in the possession of the House, but is now in the Senate.

Mr. WILSON. I do not care anything about amending it, but our agreement with the Judiciary General Committee was that this bill was to go back to the Committee, and the sponsor and I are trying to make our word good.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may recall it from the Senate by concurrent resolution.

Mr. WILSON. I may make the motion to recall it from the Senate this afternoon.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess until 3.30 o'clock this afternoon. The Chair hears none and a recess is declared until 3.30 o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 3.30 o'clock P. M.
The SPEAKER, (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1467, (Senate Bill No. 387), as follows:

An Act relating to municipal indebtedness imposing certain powers and duties upon the Department of Internal Affairs and the officers of counties cities of the third class boroughs towns townships school districts of the second third and fourth classes and poor districts in connection with proceedings to incur and increase indebtedness and the establishing and maintaining of sinking funds fixing the maximum maturity of refunding bonds and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the word "municipality" as used in this act shall mean any county city of the third class borough town township school district of the second third and fourth class and poor district

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the Department of Internal Affairs to carefully examine all proceedings had by the several municipalities of this Commonwealth for the incurring or increasing of the indebtedness thereof and to ascertain whether the proposed debt is within the limitations imposed by the constitution and whether such proceedings are in conformity with existing laws

Section 3 The mayor of each city of the third class the burgess of each borough or town the president of the board of county commissioners of each county the president of the township commissioners of each first class township the chairman of the board of township supervisors of each second class township the president of each school board and the president or chairman of the board of poor directors or overseers of each poor district which shall have any proceedings for the incurring or increasing of indebtedness except notes issued in anticipation of revenue for not more than one year shall before any bonds or evidences of indebtedness are actually issued and sold certify to the Department of Internal Affairs a complete and accurate copy of the proceedings had for such incurring or increasing of indebtedness together with the assessed valuation of the property subject to taxation within the respective municipality the total amount of the existing indebtedness and the several amounts claimed as permitted deductions in ascertaining the real indebtedness of such municipality

Any officer of any such municipality who shall fail or refuse to certify any such proceedings or other facts as required by this section or who shall wilfully certify any such proceedings of facts which are false or inaccurate shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or both

Section 4 The Department of Internal Affairs shall immediately upon receipt of any such proceedings and facts examine the same and if such proceedings are found to be in accordance with the constitution and law shall within twenty days after the receipt thereof approve the same and certify its approval to the proper municipality

Section 5 If upon examination the Department shall find that such proposed debt is not within the limitations imposed by the constitution or that the proceedings are not in accordance with law it shall disapprove the same and shall within twenty days after the receipt thereof certify its disapproval to the municipality and thereafter it shall be unlawful for such municipality to issue any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness upon such proceedings unless the proceedings are subject to correction which correction has been approved by the Department

Section 6 It shall be unlawful for any municipality to issue or sell any bonds or other evidences of indebtedness unless the provisions of this act have been complied with and all such bonds and other evidences of indebtedness issued contrary to the provisions of this act shall be invalid and shall impose no liability on the municipality or have any lien

Section 7 The Department shall keep a record of all approvals and disapprovals made under the authority of this act and the same shall be a public record and copies thereof duly certified under the hand and seal of the Secretary of Internal Affairs shall be admitted in evidence in all courts and elsewhere

Section 8 The Department of Internal Affairs shall from time to time inspect and investigate the sinking funds of the several municipalities which have any outstanding obligations and all records books and papers relating thereto and may require the corporate authorities of such municipalities to furnish statements showing the condition of such sinking funds and the amount of outstanding obligations together with their rate of interest and date of maturity

Whenever upon investigation the Department shall ascertain that any municipality which has any outstanding obligations has failed or neglected to establish a sinking fund to meet interest and principal payments as the same become due or has failed to provide sufficient funds for the sinking fund to meet such payments the Department shall have power to make an order requiring such municipality to establish forthwith a sinking fund and to provide sufficient revenues therefor or to provide sufficient revenues for any established fund

Any officer of any municipality who shall refuse or neglect to obey any order of the Department of Internal Affairs made under the authority of this section or who shall refuse to furnish any information required by said Department or refuse agents of the said Department the right of access to any records books and papers relating to the sinking fund of the municipality shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars

Section 9 Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any municipality to provide for the refunding of any existing indebtedness for a longer period than twenty years and any obligations issued for a longer period than herein provided shall be invalid and impose no municipal liability or have any lien All proceedings to issue bonds or obligations for the purpose of refunding existing indebtedness shall be approved by the Department of Internal Affairs as in the case of other proceedings and no refunding bonds shall hereafter be issued by any municipality without the approval of the said Department Refunding bonds issued without the approval of the said Department shall be invalid and impose no municipal liability

Section 10 This act shall take effect on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight

Section 11 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1093, entitled:

An Act permitting adjacent cities boroughs towns and townships to enter into contracts for the furnishing of service by or to each other or portions thereof and providing for the collection and payment of the costs of such service

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any city borough incorporated town or township hereinafter called municipalities has established and is maintaining any service for the comfort health safety and convenience of the inhabitants thereof which it is by existing law authorized to maintain it shall be lawful for such municipality to extend such service to adjoining municipalities or portions thereof whether or not such adjoining municipalities lie wholly or in part in the same county as the municipality having such service and whether or not such municipalities be separated by natural boundaries such as streams or rivers

Section 2 The authorities of adjacent municipalities as herein set forth having the power to enter into contracts for such municipalities may enter into contracts for the extension of such service or services

Section 3 The authorities of any municipality may enter into a contract with an adjoining municipality for the extension of such service or services to a portion only of the municipality upon a petition of the owners of a majority of the lineal feet frontage along the highways in said portion of the municipality Such petition shall be accompanied by a draft defining clearly the boundaries of the territory for which petition is made. In the event that a contract with an adjoining municipality shall be entered into as a result of said petition the municipal authorities of the municipality of which a portion desires such service shall constitute the territory desiring such service a separate zone or district and the costs of such service or services to be collected as hereinafter provided shall be collected solely from the property owners or residents of such district or zone

Section 4 The charge for such service or services which one municipality may contract to pay to an adjoining municipality under the provisions of this act shall be collected by the municipality liable therefor by an assessment or charge upon the properties or individuals in said municipality in any one of the following methods

(a) By the levy of an annual tax upon all property including factories and places of business but excepting farm land in said municipality or district thereof based upon the assessment for county purposes

(b) By a definite rental rate or charge based upon the service actually rendered when the value of the service is readily apportionable levied upon each property in said municipality or district thereof which property or the occupants thereof have received such service

(c) By the levy of a per capita tax on each resident or inhabitant of such municipality or district thereof over twenty-one years of age

Section 5 The taxes and charges hereinbefore authorized to be levied shall be collected by the municipal officer collecting the other municipal taxes who shall keep the same in a separate account and shall have the same powers and receive the same commissions therefor as for the collection of the other taxes of his municipality and shall be under the same restrictions as to the audit accounting and payment thereof as of other municipal moneys

Section 6 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

NAYS—0.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 650, (House Bill No. 704), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and ninety-five) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and fixing their salaries"

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I ask for information. Is there anyone in the Senate who understands this bill or knows anything about it?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I know something about it.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, this bill seems to lower rather than raise the salaries of assistant district attorneys in counties of the fourth class. The class of the county is not mentioned but the population is mentioned as 90,000 and less than 750,000, and under the terms of that bill it would tend to lower rather than raise the salaries of assistant district attorneys.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, that particular part of the bill I am not familiar with. I am familiar only with the amendments made there applying to counties having a population of 200,000 and less than 350,000. I did not know that the bill lowered any salaries.

If the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Boyd, desires to have the bill amended, I have no objection; because I want it to be made right.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, in that case I move that the bill be amended.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, why not let this bill go over until Monday?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 650, (House Bill No. 704), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and ninety-five) entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in the several counties having over ninety thousand and less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and fixing their salaries" go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 149, on third reading, entitled:

An Act for the protection of the public from exorbitant charges for rooms in hotels inns boarding houses and other places conducted for the accommodation of the public go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 543, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the opening of ballot boxes after general municipal special or primary elections upon petition to the Court of Common Pleas or a judge thereof under certain circumstances and imposing certain duties in connection therewith upon the Court the Prothonotary and the county treasurer be recommitted to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to know for what purpose this bill is to be recommitted.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, for further reconsideration of the bill.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, is this done with the knowledge and consent of the Governor?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I am unable to answer that question. As Chairman of the Committee on Elections I think we have reason for further consideration of this bill. Therefore, I ask that it go back for further consideration.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this is the bill which was recommended by the Governor, as I understand?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, this is one of the four bills of the Governor's, yes, sir.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it has been considered in committee, has it not?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, not to the extent of finished business.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it was sent out after a motion, was it not?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it was.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, this bill has been introduced by Mr. Weingartner under the recommendation of the Governor in one of two ways,—either in good faith or in bad faith. If it has been introduced in good faith there is not any reason for sending it back to committee; it provides precisely for the thing that has been promised: That is, that we will have an opportunity to open ballot boxes in Pennsylvania where there is thought to be fraud.

In view of the motion made yesterday for the appointment of a commission, it seems to me that this motion this morning means simply a stall. If the bill goes back—

Mr. DAVIS Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, to yield the floor to me for a second.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, yield to the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to state that there is nothing in this bill that is going to be stalled. This bill will be acted upon this morning by the committee. In all fairness to the members of the committee and to the members of this Senate—

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I say this motion is made to stall, if it goes back—

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, that is the point I want to bring out. It is this: It is not for the purpose of stalling this bill.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, there are some men on this floor who want this bill to go through as it stands,—because the bill is honest and it gives the honest men a chance, if there is suspicion of corruption in an election, to go into court and have ballot boxes opened. It is the thing that has been talked about over this Commonwealth for years. We have the opportunity this morning to put it through this body, and there are a great many men here who desire to vote on it and vote for it. It is the kind of a bill, having gotten,—

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, will have to confine himself to the motion. The merits of the bill are not open for discussion at this time.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the motion is to recommit the bill. I am objecting to the return of the bill, and for the reason that it has been fully considered in the committee, and any attempt or any move to send it back is intended to stall action on this particular bill; and I submit that the Senate this morning, having this opportunity, ought to vote on this bill. It is a bill that is backed by the Governor of the Commonwealth. It is the one he talked about in his Inaugural Address. It is the one he talked about in his campaign. It is the one he talked about in the newspapers since this Legislature has come into session. It has been fully considered by the public, by this committee and by every member here; and I submit that this is the time to vote on this bill.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I can assure the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, that this bill will receive due consideration. We are all for election reform, and I can assure the Senate this morning that if this bill is recommitted to the Committee on Elections it will have due consideration and be reported out of committee to the satisfaction of all concerned, both the Senate and the Governor of Pennsylvania.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I promised the Governor that I would vote for his election bills as he had them presented in the Senate, and I am going to vote against this motion to recommit this bill, because I would like to have an opportunity to vote for the bill as it stands to-day.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, when is the committee going to meet?

Mr. DAVIS Mr. President, I will tell you better if the bill is recommitted.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, will it be to-day?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, will the bill be reported out today?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it will if the committee so desires.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I am anxious to attend the meeting, and I want to make sure I will have an opportunity to attend the meeting; and that is the reason I am interrogating the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis. I do not want to tie the Chairman of the Committee on Elections down to a minute, but if we have a recess will the committee meet between now and one o'clock?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it will.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Huffman and Mr. Lanius, and were as follows, viz:

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 812, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections nine and twenty-four of the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 678) entitled "An act relating to and regulating the use and operation of motor vehicles and vehicles propelled by or trailing after motor vehicles requiring the registration of the same and the licensing of all operators thereof providing the fees therefor and the disposition of such fees prohibiting the unauthorized use of and tampering with motor vehicles limiting and defining the powers of cities boroughs incorporated towns townships and counties as to the regulation of the use and equipment of motor vehicles and the taxing registration or licensing thereof imposing certain duties on the State Highway Commissioner and on proprietors of public garages providing procedure and penalties for violations thereof and the disposition of fines collected and regulating the services of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising from the use of any motor vehicle" allowing an increase in the registration fees and in the weight of motor vehicles having six wheels be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I should like to know what the purpose of this is.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the purpose is primarily that the weight of trucks may be increased from 26,000 to 29,000 pounds.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, is it for the purpose of amendment?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it is.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 817, entitled:

An Act providing a method whereby boroughs divided into wards may provide for the election of all councilmen at large

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 823, (House Bill No. 197), entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred and twenty-one of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 840) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" as amended by defining and limiting road taxes

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I desire to move that action on this be postponed for the present.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, whether he will not allow the bill to go over in its order.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, it has been over in order twice, and now Senator North has an amendment he wishes to suggest. I have taken it up with the sponsor of the bill, to see whether that amendment is satisfactory or not It does not make any difference to me whether the bill goes over in its order or is postponed,—I just did not like to keep putting it over every day.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I am very much interested in the bill on account of my own county; and if Senator North has an amendment, we ought at least to have some person from our county see what kind of an amendment it is. Therefore, we would ask him to give us a copy of it, so we will be in a position to understand what effect it would have on this bill.

As for postponing it, that puts it in a different position from what it would be in if it were to go over in its order. It would then be liable to be called up from the postponed calendar when certain persons who are interested in the bill may not be here. On the other hand, if it goes over in its order we can look over it on the basis of attendance at the session, and we can get through with this amendment possibly today, if he gives us an opportunity.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. President, for the information of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, I may say that the amendments will be submitted to him. I have already taken them up with those interested in the legislation.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I interceded to get this bill out of committee, and I am very much interested in it because of the people in Allegheny County who are interested in the bill; and the only reason we wanted to postpone it was to give the people that are interested in it an opportunity to see Senator North's amendments and see whether or not they will be satisfied with them before they are placed in the bill.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 825, (House Bill No. 412), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twelfth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 573) entitled "An act validating ordinances and proceedings by councils in boroughs for the paving and curbing of public highways and validating municipal liens therefore when they have not been filed in time" by extending the provisions of said act to include improvements to cartways and footwalks

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, March 23, 1927.

The House met at 10.00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, on this beautiful morning may the sunshine of Thy presence flood our lives even as Thy sunshine is flooding this earth. May we realize that sorrow may endure for the night but joy cometh in the morning; and so may it be with us to-day in all that we do. May the sunshine of love not only radiate from us into the darkness of other lives but even into the darkness of our own lives, and may eternal hope spring in every heart and even in each others lives and in this world of light and peace and of joy and of hope which Thy presence can give. Be with the Houses to-day, and if the members go to their homes, grant that sunshine and happiness and peace may abide there and with us always, for Thy sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Bush, seconded by Mrs. Pennock, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.
